

GDPR

General Data Protection Regulation

By May 25, 2018 all organizations that conduct business in Europe and/or retain personal data of European customers must now guarantee the right to privacy, confidentiality, and control of data for all EU citizens.

€20 MILLION

Potential fine for any noncompliant company or as much as 4% of annual revenue (whichever is greater).

91%

of individuals feel they've lost control over the collection, use & disposition of their PII.

79%

of companies have no plan for GDPR.

50%

of organizations will not be GDPR compliant by end of 2018.

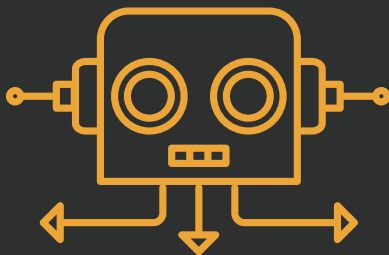

49%

feel their personal information is less secure than 5 years ago.

64%

have personally experienced a major data breach.

shinydocs Solution

The first step to becoming GDPR compliant is understanding what data you have and where it lies, then automating all future document workflows to ensure all business processes are 100% compliant.

Automate compliance workflows to embed data privacy best practices and mitigate the risk of human error.

Standardize data practices according to your jurisdiction with Shinydocs' A.I. powered Cognitive Analysis.